

12-25-1900

Letter from Louise Imogen Guiney, Boston, Massachusetts, to Anne Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1900 December 25

Louise Imogen Guiney

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Guiney, Louise Imogen and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Louise Imogen Guiney, Boston, Massachusetts, to Anne Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1900 December 25" (1900). Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence. 742.
https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence/742

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

[Dec. 25, 1900]

Dear Miss Whitney:

It came, the buyom ticket, and fills me with joy. I have a keen memory of The Pageant of the Year, some four or five years ago, as one of the wonderful things. Thank you once more: and as I said, I shall be there. Have you, by any chance, had a peep at the Christmas Churchman? You would find there the quaintest, winningest little mystery-play by your admired Florence Converse with Latin-speaking beasts, and an air of true pastoral thirteenth century innocence. I thought it would please you a bit (while we are in the Christmas vein) to hear what my mother reports from our old Church of the Immaculate Conception, where she was at High Mass today. The Jesuit who preached (Rev. Charles Macksey) came out strong against Imperialism, in a pulpit where mere politics are never mentioned. His text was the poor birth, and humble lifelong condition of Christ, and the absolute disinterestedness of his Gospel, its scorn of gain, its law of love, etc., as contrasted with the passion of 'Christian' men and nations for all they can get, no matter how, in the Philippines, China, or Any Old Where! I was very glad of such a point made on such a day.

Goodnight, with love from
L. J. G.

Miss Anne Whitney,
The Charlesgate,
Boston.